HEROIC ACTION MERITS REWARD

Gettysburg Citizens to Place Case of Samuel Knox who Tried to Save Mrs. Steinour before Carnegie Hero Fund Commission.

A movement has been started here to secure for Samuel Knox, who so heroically tried to save Mrs. Steinour from death Sunday morning some recognition from the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission and steps will be taken to bring Mr. Knox's case to the attention of that body.

The young man is suffering severely from terrible burns to his hands, which, though not threatening any permanent serious effects will incapacitate him for work for weeks to come. The flesh was burned completely by the fire and it will be necessary for entire new skin to form before Mr. Knox will be able to take up any manual duties whatever. Dr. H. M. Hartman, the physician in attendance, believes that in time the members will heal entirely and there will not even any stiffness remain. That this may be hoped for is most fortunate but should in no way detract from Mr. Knox's eligibility for recognition from the Hero Commission.

His action in trying to save Mrs. Steinour was most heroic. With his bare hands he took hold of the burning woman and prevented her from returning to the cellar after she had come up. He tried to beat out the flames and to wrap rugs about her. When she got away from him he followed her into the yard, and back into the house again, all the time at great risk to his own person.

Even when he found his efforts were fruitless he did not desist but carried the woman from the house and in doing so sustained still further injuries to himself. While the hands are most severely burned he also suffered burns on his cheeks and these cause him no little pain.

A number of local people have taken up the matter of bringing his case to the attention to the Carnegie Commission and it is believed that, with the case properly presented, Mr. Knox will be amply rewarded for his heroism which has been followed by much suffering and enforced idleness for weeks to come.

RAN INTO FREIGHT TRAIN

A slight train wreck occurred one mile east of Porter's Saturday evening at 4:50 o'clock. While the train leaving here at 3:42 was rounding Kraft's curve, it crashed into the rear end of a Port Covington coal train, which was standing on the main track, ready to pull on the siding at Valley Junction. Engineer Hiram Eichelberger, of Baltimore, who was in charge of the mail train, saw the caboose of the freight train while rounding the curve, and quickly applied the emergency brake, which probably saved the lives of quite a number of people. The caboose was smashed beyond repairs; a "battleship," loaded with coal, slightly damaged, and the cowcatcher and headlight of the heavy passenger engine demolished. Two trainmen were asleep in the caboose when the engine plowed into it. They escaped without being hurt, while some of their belongings were smashed to pieces. The passengers received a shake up with no serious injury. The cause of the wreck, it is said, was on account of the lack of a flagman guarding the rear end of the train.

SUCCESSFUL REVIVAL

Revival services are still in progress at the Methodist church in York Springs. The building is filled every night and to date about sixty have started to lead a Christian life, while fifty have been converted. Heads of families are being reached and two men over sixty years of age are numbered among those who have been converted. Quarterly conference will be held Thursday afternoon at one o'clock. Dr. Fiesick, the district superintendent, will preside in the evening. Regular services at Bendersville at 2:30 p. m. A. C. Logan, pastor.

MENCHEY—CROUSE

John P. Menchey, son of Anthony Menchey, and Miss Florence S. Crouse, daughter of Mrs. Lucy Crouse, Littlestown, were married in the Lutheran parsonage, Littlestown, by Rev. J. J. Hill, at 6 p. m., Sunday, February 11th.

Mr. and Mrs. Menchey returned to Hanover on the 10 p. m. car over the trolley line, a supper awaiting them at the home of the groom's aunt, Mrs. Mandilla Wentz, Hanover, where they will make their future home.

They left Monday to visit friends in Waynesboro, Carlisle and Quincy.

BOWLING TEAM TO HANOVER

The Gettysburg bowling team will play Hanover at the latter place this evening.

FIREMEN HELD BIG MASQUERADE

Several Hundred Attended Big Event in Xavier Hall on Monday Evening. Lebanon Club of Fire Company Gets Proceeds.

Gettysburg's firemen on Monday evening held the most largely attended public dance given in this place for many years, between three hundred and four hundred young people—and some not so young—gathering at Xavier Hall for an evening of dancing and fun.

And they had it. One hundred of the dancers were in costume and were masked. They opened the affair with a grand march led by Wm. McG. Tawney and Miss Jennie Weaver and after going through a number of figures swung off into the first two steps. There were clowns and cow boys, Mexicans and foot ball players, soldiers and fairies. Santa Claus and Miss Columbia appeared on the floor and many other well gotten up costumes made the early masquerade part of the dance very attractive.

Early in the evening the mummies were requested to remove their masks and many of them discarded their costumes which had been donned over their other clothing and made dancing a rather uncomfortable pastime. From half past eight until almost midnight the dancing was continued, the Citizens' Band furnishing the music and the floor being crowded during the entire evening. It is doubtful if a larger crowd of dancers ever occupied the floor and it was surely no place for the beginner to experiment.

The committee responsible for the success of the evening were Ralph Wiernan, Moses Bair, Rufus Bushman, Horace Smiley, and C. E. Kitzmiller. A number of young ladies assisted in serving refreshments which were sold during the evening.

The dance was held for the benefit of the "Lebanon Club," an organization within the fire company having for its object the accumulation of a fund to be used to take the firemen and band to the state firemen's convention at Lebanon next September. The dance netted the sum of $55.00 and C. S. Renner kindly sent a donation of $5.00 to be added to the fund.

Rev. S. Winfield Herman, of Harrisburg, made the address. It was the intention of the society to confer membership upon John F. Dapp, of Harrisburg, who has shown a very keen and substantial interest in the welfare of the college, but he was unable to be present. Following the meeting an informal supper was held in the Druid fraternity house.

STRONG EDITORIAL FOR LINCOLN WAY

Baltimore Sun Favors Lincoln Highway Proposition and Expresses Views on Subject in Forceful Manner.

The Baltimore Sun in favoring the Lincoln Way has the following to say in an editorial:

It is very natural and proper that the Baltimore Chapter of the American Institute of Architects should prefer an architectural monument to Lincoln rather than a road. But, while we understand their attitude, we are unable to agree with them.

The architects claim that a road could not possibly convey to the eye of the beholder the idea of a memorial. We deny this. A broad, even beautiful road following a straight line over hill and dale, stretching across the bosom of the map like the white ribbon of a decoration, would be both impressive and also imposing. Moreover, fame is not based upon the vision of the eye, but upon the impression produced upon the minds of men. Lincoln's fame in the future depends largely upon the history books taught in the schools; so there is no reason, if an equally suitable memorial can be found, why we should necessarily consecrate the entire sum raised to an architectural feature.

Now, is a road a good memorial? Does it tend to perpetuate the name of the person after whom it is called? The great highways of antiquity, and especially of Rome, answers yes. The Appian, Flavian and Flaminian roads are a few among many others which perpetuated for centuries the names of the soldiers and statesmen after whom they were called. The Appian Way still exists, and is used in parts as a road. In Asia Minor the Royal road, though it only survives in the ruins of the cities which it fed, still preserves the memory of the Hittite sovereigns who made it, centuries before the birth of Christ. To stop and gaze at a beautiful building or other work of art is an incident—an important one we admit—in the existence of those few who have the good fortune to do so. A great highway is a necessary part of the daily lives of the thousands who use it.

It is, however, claimed that the road will be merely a splendid sample of the kind of good roads which should in time traverse our country in all sections. To this we would answer that it is proposed to construct a memorial arch at a suitable point on the highway. In the second place, when the country has been covered by a network of such roads, its citizens will be so greatly enriched by that very fact that they will be able to afford Lincoln twice or thrice the amount of an architectural memorial.

At the present time $2,000,000 is a large sum to devote to a purely ornamental object. Every one is preaching economy in the Federal expenditures, and it is probable that most of our legislators favor as much economy in practice as will not lose their parties votes in the coming election. Here is an opportunity for both practicing economy and gaining votes. A great national road, spanned by a memorial arch and connecting Washington city, where Lincoln achieved his fame, with Gettysburg battlefield, which was the turning point of the great struggle—no more appropriate or enduring monument could be devised for the great preserver of the American Union.

SHERWOOD PENSION BILL TURNED DOWN

Dollar-a-Day Measure Set Aside For Smoot Plan.

Washington, Feb. 13. — The Sherwood "dollar-a-day" pension bill was rejected by the senate committee on pensions.

Another measure, which would involve an annual expenditure of $21,000,000, proposed as a substitute by Senator Smoot, of Utah, was adopted.

Senators Brown and Curtis gave notice in the senate that they would press the Sherwood bill as a substitute for the Smoot bill.

The Sherwood bill, according to the pension bureau, would cost about $75,000,000 a year. The Smoot bill embodies provisions to pension Civil War veterans sixty-two years old, who had served ninety days or more, and Mexican War veterans who served sixty days or more.

The Mexican War veterans would receive $30 a month. The Civil War veterans would be put on a graduated scale from $12 a month, for ninety-day veterans, sixty-two years old, to $30 a month for veterans seventy-five years old, who had served three years or more.

The subject was brought up in the senate by Senator Kenyon, who made a speech in favor of the Sherwood measure.

"Why cry economy only when the soldier is involved?" he demanded. He pointed out that congress had raised the salaries of its members and of the president, entered into an expense of hundreds of millions of dollars for the Panama canal, and had even retired Robert E. Peary on rear admiral's pay for discovering "something known as the North Pole, which no one cares anything about."

"Possibly a few expeditions like that to Lake Champlain, recently exposed in the house," he added, "might be dispensed with in the interest of economy. Public buildings might wait a few years, even though it might injure the chances of a few men to go back to congress because they could no longer secure a public building at an enormous expense, where none is needed."

"Then there are the free barber shops and the free baths in the capital here. They might possibly be abolished, although I realize that I am treading on sacred and dangerous ground in making this revolutionary recommendation."

ATTACKS BRITISH EMBASSY

Man Hurls Piece of Concrete Through Window of Building at Washington.

Washington, Feb. 13.—After hurling a large piece of concrete through one of the front windows at the British embassy here, a man, who said he was Frank Fitzpatrick, of New York, waited on a street corner near by until two policemen arrested him.

The man's act created excitement and the call for the police was sent by an embassy attaché. Asked why he had hurled the missile, Fitzpatrick replied: "That's my own business."

A bystander said that Fitzpatrick had mumbled that he was cold and hungry and that he wanted to be arrested.

TAFT GUARDS WOMAN'S HONOR

Decries All Publicity in Army Scandal.

SAY HE SUPPRESSED IT

President's Letter to General Whipple Discussed Charges Against Paymaster Beecher Ray.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The alleged political influence of Major Beecher B. Ray, the army paymaster, who is declared to have enjoyed frequent changes of station, and immunity from various troubles because of the influence of President Taft, was again a subject of investigation before the house committee on expenditures in the war department.

Paymaster General Whipple testified that Major Ray had established a record in the service for frequent changes in station. In thirteen years he had been successively stationed at eighteen points, whereas the average assignment of a paymaster at any station is between three and four years.

The chairman, Mr. Helms, asked General Whipple if any of the assignments had been made at the direction of the president.

"Yes," he answered. "In 1909 the president asked that Major Ray be sent to Atlanta and in November, 1911, that he be sent to New York."

"At whose request was it that Major Ray was sent to Chicago from Atlanta, rather than to New York?"

"I got orders from the chief of staff's office to make the change to Chicago. The chief of staff said that Mrs. Ray was ill and a surgical operation was to be performed in Chicago. General Carrier said this change was made at the request of the White House."

One of the letters of President Taft to Paymaster General Whipple, put in evidence in the case, was made public, and follows:

"The White House,

"Washington, July 14, 1911.

"My Dear General Whipple—I write this to you to show it to Mr. Ray and Mr. Sweet, of the military committee. You have come to me at your own instance with the statement that you have learned that Mr. Sweet is indisposed because he thinks he has been misquoted in regard to an omission of two or three pages of the war department report called for by H. R. 208.

"The report of the record omitted refers to a charge against Major Beecher B. Ray, of illicit relations with a certain married woman, in respect to which I was consulted by you at the time the charge was made, and also at the time the resolution was passed. I saw Mr. Sweet in New Haven and told him that I deprecated its being brought out, as I thought it would tend to blast the reputation of a married woman, who, as I understood, was living happily with her husband and was not probably what the committee was searching for. I asked him to see Mr. Covington, who had promulgated the resolution and find if that part of the record might be omitted.

"I do not desire any misunderstanding and I wish that the whole record shall go to the committee if the committee desires it and to know what the circumstances are. I will ask you, therefore, to take the pages of the record to Mr. Ray, the chairman of the military committee, and to Mr. Sweet, show them the passages and correspondence, confidential or otherwise, referred to in the record.

"You have also a letter from me, written July last, when you consulted me about this matter, which I intended to be confidential and not to be put on the files, but I have no objection to your showing that letter to Mr. Ray and to Mr. Sweet, and if you desire to bring that out, you may make it a part of the record. You will please explain to them the circumstances that according to your understanding with me and the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Ray are living together happily, and the appeal which he has made to you to withdraw his original letter, in which he made the charge, and then to leave to these gentlemen the decision as to what course he shall take."

"WILLIAM H. TAFT."

In a letter to General Whipple, dated July 5, 1911, President Taft said that Major Ray did him a political service and is disposed to assume much on that score.

Mr. Sweet and Mr. Covington, referred to in the president's letters, are representatives in congress from Michigan and Maryland respectively. General Whipple testified Saturday that President Taft's letters had "suppressed" charges against Major Ray.

Crying Baby Saves Family.
Paulsboro, N. J., Feb. 13.—A baby's cries saved the family of Arthur Segal from asphyxiation. Before retiring the kitchen range was banked for the night. Gas from the coal soon began filling the house and the baby, awakened, began to cry. This awoke its mother, who rescued the other members of the family.

Ottawa, Ont., Feb. 13.—A sensational report that the Duke of Connaught will resign his office of governor general of Canada some time during 1912 and return to England, were current in official circles. Neither denial nor confirmation could be had at the government headquarters.

DYNAMITE ARRESTS TO BE MADE TODAY

Warrants Are in Hands of U. S. Marshals.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 13.—Arrests in the dynamite cases are expected to be made today, and it is not denied at the federal building that all of the defendants are not members of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Ironworkers.

It is said that at least two members of other unions have been indicted, but what unions they are or how many of them were caught in the government net cannot be learned.

At least one of the unions which is said to have been strong against the policy of helping the ironworkers is said to be one which will receive a surprise when the indictments become public. One of its well known workers, who has traveled extensively in various parts of the country, is believed to have been named in the grand jury indictments as a defendant.

While it is not expected that in a few instances local labor leaders affiliated with other unions than the ironworkers will be arrested, the list of prominent members of other unions said to be indicted is confined to two or three, so it is said.

The warrants for the arrest of the local men indicted are now in the hands of the United States marshal and the arrests are confidently expected today.

LOSES HER SOULMATE

High Cost of Living Too Much For Harry Kemp.

New York, Feb. 13.—Mrs. Meta Sinclair, wife of Upton Sinclair, the novelist, and Harry Kemp, her poetic soul mate from Kansas, are temporarily separated, because, her friends say, Kemp, with two months to feed, was not able to meet the high cost of living.

But the separation, according to the friends, is only a short one—a very short one. Under an agreement with the poet, for whom she left her husband, Mrs. Sinclair went to the home of her father, William M. Fuller, clerk of the court of special sessions, at 174 West Eighty-seventh street.

Kemp claims that the notoriety which has come to him has caused publishers who were just beginning to appreciate his work to reject his poetry. His friends say that he is still as much in love with Mrs. Sinclair as ever and she with him.

Upton Sinclair has gone to Germany and taken his ten-year-old son, David, with him. The purpose of the trip is to put the boy in school in one of the larger German cities.

HAVEN'T SPOKEN FOR YEARS

John D. Rockefeller and Brother Frank Not on Good Terms.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 13.—"How much does your brother, John D., pay his chauffeurs?" an attorney asked Frank Rockefeller in the municipal court. "I don't know," answered Mr. Rockefeller. "He and I have not spoken to each other for twelve years."

Mr. Rockefeller had appeared in court to fight a suit for $63 brought by his chauffeur. The defendant was testifying that twenty automobile owners in his family paid their chauffeurs only $60 a month, when the attorney interrupted with his question.

The chauffeur got a judgment for $44.20, and Mr. Rockefeller announced that he would appeal.

REAL ESTATE MAN KILLED

Elmer E. Pierce, of West Chester, Is Victim of Grade Crossing.

West Chester, Pa., Feb. 13.—Elmer E. Pierce, a real estate broker, about fifty years old, of this place, was killed at Brinton's bridge, on the Wilmington & Northern branch of the Reading railway, when his team was struck at a crossing by a locomotive.

The horse was also killed and the carriage demolished. Pierce was on his way to a sale near Cradd's Ford.

Anti-Third Term Bill Tabled.

Washington, Feb. 13.—Senator Reed, of Missouri, introduced his anti-third term amendment to the constitution, prohibiting the re-election of any person as president who has served two terms or one term and part of another. After being read it was laid on the table.

Body Burned in Fire.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 13.—The body of Julius Mills, who died Sunday from tuberculosis, was burned when his home and three adjoining houses were destroyed and four other residences were damaged by fire.

General Homer Lea Ill.

Shanghai, China, Feb. 13.—General Homer Lea, the American officer who has been acting as adviser to Dr. Sun Yat Sen, the president of the Chinese republic, is in a critical condition. He has been unconscious for some time.

House Passes Anti-Loan Shark Bill.

Washington, Feb. 13.—The house passed an anti-loan shark bill establishing 12 per cent as the legal rate of interest that may be charged by loan agencies in the District of Columbia.

Confesses to a Murder.

Chicago, Feb. 13.—Perle Elder walked into the office of Captain of Police Meagher here and confessed that he had killed James Sanford, a negro, at Springfield, O., Oct. 28, 1910.

Whatever the size or shape of the hog house, provision should be made for letting in a generous amount of light. It is very desirable if the arrangement of windows can be such that light will shine on some portion of the floor of the structure during the greater part of the day. Sunlight is a first rate germ destroyer and is a great aid in keeping the hog house dry and sweet and healthful.

According to figures lately compiled Texas produces more turkeys than any other state in the Union. The high prices that have prevailed during the past two or three years have served to greatly increase the raising of these big birds. From some points in southwest and west Texas from 3,000 to 4,000 birds are shipped to northern and eastern points daily during November and December.

From the standpoint of the maintenance of soil fertility—and this, after all, is the only true basis for determining whether a given type of agriculture is good or not—it can only be viewed as a misfortune when, as is the case just now, beef and pork are both so low that the feeder does not feel like running the risk of feeding them high priced corn, but instead markets his grain in the raw.

OUR Spring Goods Coming In

Every day we are receiving consignments of spring and summer goods. To make room for these it is necessary that we get rid of a few suits and overcoats which we have carried over since fall. To move them quickly we have cut the prices and excellent bargains in suits and overcoats can be had. Nothing wrong with them, good style and good cloth, but they must be sold.
